

EYES OF GRACE (WOMAN AT THE WELL PART 2)

TERRY BRISBANE, LEAD PASTOR | March 29, 2020

JOHN 4:3-11 ESV

<sup>5</sup>So He came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

<sup>6</sup>Jacob's well was there; so Jesus, wearied as He was from His journey, was sitting beside the well. It was about the sixth hour.

<sup>7</sup>A woman from Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink."

<sup>8</sup>(For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.)

<sup>9</sup>The Samaritan woman said to Him, "How is it that You, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

<sup>10</sup>Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and Who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

<sup>11</sup>The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. Where do You get that living water?"

"A large portion of the criticism leveled against Jesus had to do with the fact that He mingled with the unacceptable of his culture... those who were on the social margin—the despised and the ostracized, the spiritually blind and the publicly maligned, the non-religiously inclined... of His day—the ones we might call the outsiders, sinners and tax collectors, rich men, poor men, beggar men, thieves, adulterers and prostitutes.

He was able to communicate love and acceptance without condoning destructive and immoral practice; in fact change for the better always seemed to follow genuine interaction with Jesus. There was something about His way that made people feel simultaneously at ease and yet disturbed about their condition.

He did not patronize people or subtly communicate disgust, because He was unafraid and so completely confident in the purity of His character and the singleness of his mission that He could move in love with ease across borders and boundaries. He did so in such a manner that critics, casual observers, and even his own disciples were at times stunned, amazed, and in some cases aghast at the boldness of His method... and it's one of the reasons I love Him so much."
